

London City Mission

“New challenges ahead”

It is now the second week back after an amazing Easter break and my weeks are getting busy. All is going well and I've taken to focussing on one day at a time. Lots of new challenges and I'm looking forward to tackling them. Please continue to pray for me. Thanks.

Kids Club

For the next 6 weeks we will be looking at the miracles of Jesus so pray that each week the kids will see Jesus in a radical way. Pray that we will get a good attendance each week and for good behaviour.

Youth Club

The next project for the youth club is for them to a giant piece of artwork on a wall at the back of the café. Pray that they will be up for this and that it will be something that they can be proud of. Pray that the youth will open up more to us and the relationships with them will grow.

Art Platform

We continue to have the regulars coming and there is a real buzz around the café when the art platform is on. Pray for Maureen and that she will continue to come and that she continues to find joy in being creative. The art exhibition in the café is going to take place on the 2nd July. This will be a chance for the artists we know in the community to display their artwork. Pray for the planning of this event.

City of Peace

We have had a lot of visitors to the Sunday meeting so thank God for that. Pray for Andrew who has been coming and who I'm visiting regularly. Pray that his journey with God will go deeper. In two weeks we have the church weekend away so pray that it will be a fun time and that God's presence will be seen there.

Other Prayer Points

Next Sunday (25th Apr) we are doing a London Marathon outreach so pray for the planning of the event, that we meet lots of different people on the day and for the runners of the event itself.
