

London City Mission

The end of the first chapter...

Well Christmas is round the corner which marks the end of the first term here in London. I'll be back in Scotland from the 17th December to the 3rd January. Loads happening before I return home however so that is why the prayer letter is out a week earlier than it would normally. Keep praying!

Kids Club

God's hand has been seen so clearly in this club on a Thursday night. The number of kids attending increases each week and they all seem to be enjoying it. Prayer has definitely been answered here. Prayer for creativity and inspiration when preparing the club is needed.

Youth Club

About 15 guys continue to come and that is a blessing itself. Pray that they will be learning something of God each week. Pray for Aimé who has lost his Grandmother recently, pray for peace during this time of grieving.

Art Platform

The numbers that attend this slot on a Thursday afternoon varies, pray that those who attend will make it a regular thing each week. Continued prayer for Steve and that we may be able to have deeper conversations.

City of Peace

New faces from the community have been appearing at the Sunday service which is amazing to see. Pray that they may know God's presence in their lives. We had some local Bengali Christians at the service a couple of weeks ago and so we sang some songs in Bengali. Prayer for unity within the different Christian fellowships in the area.

Christmas Market

This event is happening on the 5th of December. This is a time when people in the community comes together to buy home-made items of the thirty stalls, there will be a Santa's grotto, a bouncy castle, face painting, and food to buy when people get hungry. This is a chance for us to meet many people in the area who have never been to the café and make connections with them and it is also a chance to have a street party! Pray that the event runs smoothly, for good weather, for a good turn-out, and that connections will be made with people.

Carol Service

All of us on the gap year with LCM will be singing carols on the 12th of December along with other LCM staff. The event will take place at Trafalgar Square at 7pm. Afterwards we meet and greet the public who have been watching and singing with us. This is a chance to chat about God and enjoy this festive time of year.

*Thanks and have a Merry Christmas my friends,
Paul*
